

THE WESSEX CONFERENCE

Spring Road Evangelical Church, Sholing,
Southampton

Saturday 18th February, 2012

Furthering God's Glory by Our Conduct as Believers

How should we deal with conflict with our brothers and sisters in the local church? When should we forgive and forget and when should we confront? Where does responsibility lie in resolving problems and issues? Can there ever be real restoration and healing in relationships?

The Lord's day is under fierce and constant attack. Should we be concerned? Is the Lord's day no longer relevant? What should be our attitude to it and what help is there from the word as we seek to honour it and encourage our children to keep it?

3:00pm: Pastor David Kay: (Whiddon Valley, Barnstaple)
Responding to One Another in a Biblical Way

6:00pm: Pastor Austin Walker: (Maidenbower, Crawley)
The Lord's Day & Its Right Use

David Kay has faithfully pastored Whiddon Valley Evangelical Church, Barnstaple for some 17 years. His ministry has been appreciated at minister's fraternals and at other conferences both here and abroad. David is also the registrar for the West Country Reformed Seminary.

Austin Walker has been pastor at Maidenbower Baptist Church Crawley for 36 years. He has spoken regularly at fraternals and Reformed conferences both here and overseas. He has also written and published works on Baptist church history.

Tea provided between meetings: A very warm invitation is extended to all
